All: We have sinned and done wrong and acted wickedly and rebelled, turning aside from Your commandments and ordinances.

Minister: We have known in our hearts what is right, and yet we did wrong anyway.

All: You have told us in Your word what is right, and yet we have delighted in pleasing ourselves and satisfying our desires.

Minister: O Lord, have mercy on us according to Your steadfast love. According to Your tender mercies, blot out our transgressions.

All: You are a God who delights in goodness. Grant that we too might delight in goodness. These prayers we present to You as Your children, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH: Westminster Larger Catechism Q. 33-35

Q. 33. Was the covenant of grace always administered after one and the same manner?

A. The covenant of grace was not always administered after the same manner, but the administrations of it under the Old Testament were different from those under the New.

Q. 34. How was the covenant of grace administered under the Old Testament?

A. The covenant of grace was administered under the Old Testament, by promises, prophecies, sacrifices, circumcision, the passover, and other types and ordinances, which did all fore-signify Christ then to come, and were for that time sufficient to build up the elect in faith in the promised Messiah, by whom they then had full remission of sin, and eternal salvation.

Q. 35. How is the covenant of grace administered under the New Testament?

A. Under the New Testament, when Christ the substance was exhibited, the same covenant of grace was and still is to be administered in the preaching of the word, and the administration of the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's supper; in which grace and salvation are held forth in more fulness, evidence, and efficacy, to all nations.
