CORPORATE AND PERSONAL CONFESSION OF SIN

God of compassion, You are slow to anger and full of mercy, welcoming sinners who return to You with penitent hearts. Though we are prone to wander, You are the Good Shepherd who seeks us to bring us back to the fold. Receive in Your loving embrace all who come home to You. Seat us at Your bountiful table of grace, that, with all Your children, we may feast with delight on all that satisfies our hungry hearts. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH: Westminster Larger Catechism Q. 174-175

Q. 174. What is required of them that receive the sacrament of the Lord's supper in the time of the administration of it?

A. It is required of them that receive the sacrament of the Lord's supper, that, during the time of the administration of it, with all holy reverence and attention they wait upon God in that ordinance, diligently observe the sacramental elements and actions, heedfully discern the Lord's body, and affectionately meditate on his death and sufferings, and thereby stir up themselves to a vigorous exercise of their graces; in judging themselves, and sorrowing for sin; in earnest hungering and thirsting after Christ, feeding on him by faith, receiving of his fulness, trusting in his merits, rejoicing in his love, giving thanks for his grace; in renewing of their covenant with God, and love to all the saints.

Q. 175. What is the duty of Christians, after they have received the sacrament of the Lord's supper?

A. The duty of Christians, after they have received the sacrament of the Lord's supper, is seriously to consider how they have behaved themselves therein, and with what success; if they find quickening and comfort, to bless God for it, beg the continuance of it, watch against relapses, fulfil their vows, and encourage themselves to a frequent attendance on that ordinance: but if they find no present benefit, more exactly to review their preparation to, and carriage at the sacrament; in both which, if they can approve themselves to God and their own consciences, they are to wait for the fruit of it in due time; but, if they see they have failed in either, they are to be humbled, and to attend upon it afterward with more care and diligence.
