*INVOCATION

CORPORATE AND PERSONAL CONFESSION OF SIN

Minister: O God, our Father, we come to You recognizing our failures and weakness.

All: We confess that we fill our lives with worry, though You call us to trust You completely in all things.

Minister: We obsess over life and health, what we have to eat and wear, and the challenges that face us.

All: When the storms of life assail us, we see only the wind and waves, losing sight of You.

Minister: Your Word teaches us that we have been set free from the troubles of this world, but we so easily turn back to our fears.

All: We believe, Lord, help our unbelief.

Minister: Strengthen our faith and trust in Your promises that You will deliver us safely to the end.

All: And help us to be a city set on a hill, a testament to Your faithfulness that upholds us no matter what may come. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON: Psalms 130:7-8

GLORIA PATRI* - Trinity 735

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH: Westminster Larger Catechism Q. 176-177

Q. 176. Wherein do the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's supper agree?

A. The sacraments of baptism and the Lord's supper agree, in that the author of both is God; the spiritual part of both is Christ and his benefits; both are seals of the same covenant, are to be dispensed by ministers of the gospel, and by none other; and to be continued in the church of Christ until his second coming.

Q. 177. Wherein do the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's supper differ?

A. The sacraments of baptism and the Lord's supper differ, in that baptism is to be administered but once, with water, to be a sign and seal of our regeneration and ingrafting into Christ, and that even to infants; whereas the Lord's supper is to be administered often, in the elements of bread and wine, to represent and exhibit Christ as spiritual nourishment to the soul, and to confirm our continuance and growth in him, and that only to such as are of years and ability to examine themselves.
