CONFESSION OF SIN

Minister: O Lord, our God, whom we adore as our heavenly Father, and who has adopted us as Your children:

All: We have sinned and done wrong and acted wickedly and rebelled, turning aside from Your commandments and ordinances.

Minister: We have known in our hearts what is right, and yet we did wrong anyway.

All: You have told us in Your word what is right, and yet we have delighted in pleasing ourselves and satisfying our desires.

Minister: O Lord, have mercy on us according to Your steadfast love. According to Your tender mercies, blot out our transgressions.

All: You are a God who delights in goodness. Grant that we too might delight in goodness. These prayers we present to You as Your children, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH: Westminster Larger Catechism Q. 97-98

Q. 97. What special use is there of the moral law to the regenerate?

A. Although they that are regenerate, and believe in Christ, be delivered from the moral law as a covenant of works, so as thereby they are neither justified nor condemned; yet, besides the general uses thereof common to them with all men, it is of special use, to show them how much they are bound to Christ for his fulfilling it, and enduring the curse thereof in their stead, and for their good; and thereby to provoke them to more thankfulness, and to express the same in their greater care to conform themselves thereunto as the rule of their obedience.

Q. 98. Where is the moral law summarily comprehended?

A. The moral law is summarily comprehended in the ten commandments, which were delivered by the voice of God upon mount Sinai, and written by him in two tables of stone; and are recorded in the twentieth chapter of Exodus. The first four commandments containing our duty to God, and the other six our duty to man.
