CONFESSION OF SIN

O Lord, in whose hands are life and death, by whose power we are sustained, and by whose mercy we are paled—look down upon us with pity. Forgive us that we have until now so much neglected the duty which You have assigned to us, and suffered the days and hours of which we must give account to pass away without any endeavor to accomplish Your will. Make us to remember, O God, that every day is Your gift, and ought to be used according to Your command. Grant us, therefore, so to repent of our negligence, that we may obtain mercy from You, and pass the time which You shall yet allow us in diligent performance of Your commands, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

It pleased God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, for the manifestation of the glory of his eternal power, wisdom, and goodness, in the beginning, to create, or make of nothing, the world, and all things therein whether visible or invisible, in the space of six days; and all very good.

After God had made all other creatures, he created man, male and female, with reasonable and immortal souls, endued with knowledge, righteousness, and true holiness, after his own image; having the law of God written in their hearts, and power to fulfill it: and yet under a possibility of transgressing, being left to the liberty of their own will, which was subject unto change. Beside this law written in their hearts, they received a command, not to eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil; which
